SECTION E - Customer Declaration and Signature

I/we confirm that details of this proposal, any agreement you make with me/us, any supporting documentation which I/we have or will supply and the conduct of my/our account(s) with you may be disclosed to:-

- (a) Any licensed credit reference agency;
- (b) Any body or bureau for the purpose of fraud prevention;
- (c) Any company within the group of companies to which you may from time to time belong (these other companies being known as "associate companies");
- (d) Any insurer or prospective insurer under the agreement;
- (e) Any actual or potential assignee, transferee or other interested or contracting party or, in each case, their advisers.

I/we confirm that you may securitise any agreement I/we may have with you. I/we understand that securitisation typically involves you transferring all or some of the rights and duties that go with the agreement to an investor who normally asks you to carry on administering the agreement as though one of your own. (So that, for example, following securitisation you would normally continue to collect payments and should I/we experience any difficulties in making payments, or have other queries, I/we should contact you unless informed otherwise).
